BRIGHT NEWS

What is happening in Martindale Brightwood?

EMCC celebrates 85th anniversary!

Edna Martin Christian Center (EMCC) proudly celebrates its 85th anniversary, marking nearly nine decades of service and impact in the Martindale-Brightwood community. Founded by Edna Mae Barnes Martin, EMCC began as a vision to provide education, spiritual guidance, and community support for families on Indianapolis's east side. Over the years, the center has grown into a hub for youth programs, workforce development, senior services, and community initiatives, staying true to Martin's mission of empowering residents and fostering opportunity. This milestone honors EMCC's rich history, the dedication of its staff and volunteers, and the generations of lives it has touched.

Did you know?

Edna Martin Christian Center has its very own day. It's true, Edna Martin Christian Center Day is officially on February 18; the mayor of Indianapolis in 1990 William H. Hudnut III, proclaimed it!
